Preface

The Office of Institutional Research (OIR) at Alabama State University publishes the University Fact Book annually during the spring semester. This document serves as an official reference guide to pertinent information about the University's history, facilities, students, personnel, alumni and academic programs. The Fact Book presents information that highlights the patterns or trends that exist in the institutional data. The Fact Book also provides a historical context in which to review the University's development and may be used as a reference among the University's administrators and faculty in planning and decision-making.

General Information

ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Mission

Alabama State University is a student-centered, nurturing, comprehensive and diverse public historically black University committed to achieving excellence in teaching, research and public service. The University fulfills its mission through fostering critical thought, artistic creativity, professional competence and responsible citizenship in its students; by adding to the body of knowledge to enhance the quality of life through research and discovery; and by helping to advance the state and nation through thoughtful public service. Offering baccalaureate through doctorate degrees, the University maintains a scholarly and creative faculty, state-of-the-art facilities and a living atmosphere in which all members of the campus community can work and learn in pleasant and rewarding surroundings. Consistent with its assurance that race, gender nor economic status inhibits intelligence, creativity or achievement, ASU offers a bridge to success for those who commit to pursuing the building blocks of development, focus, persistence and reward.

Institutional Goals

1. To organize the University in such a manner as to provide sufficient and appropriate leadership, management and oversight to achieve its mission and goals;
2. To ensure the academic integrity of the University;
3. To ensure the fiscal integrity of the University;
4. To enhance the public's perception of the University in order to increase external support;
5. To develop and maintain the physical campus so that the University is a productive, pleasant place to work, study and live;
6. To ensure that the University responds to all of its constituents;
7. To improve programs and services that will contribute to the development of wholesome student life; and
8. To foster continuous improvement of daily operations to become a world-class institution of higher learning.

Accreditations and Memberships

Glossary

Academic rank: categorization of faculty positions, which include tenure/tenure-track and non-tenure track positions. Tenured and tenure-track positions are assistant professor, associate professor and professor; non-tenure-track positions are instructor.
ACT: previously known as the American College Testing program, this test measures educational development and readiness to pursue college-level coursework in English, mathematics, natural science, and social studies. Student performance does not reflect innate ability and is influenced by a student's educational preparedness.
Admitted student: Applicant who is offered admission to a degree-granting program at Alabama State University.
American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community recognition.
Applicant: An individual who has fulfilled the institution's requirements to be considered for admission and who has been notified of one of the following actions: admission, no admission, placement on waiting list, or application withdrawn (by applicant or institution).
Asian or Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or Pacific Islands. This includes people from China, Japan, Korea, the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, India, and Vietnam.
Bachelor's degree: An award (baccalaureate or equivalent degree, as determined by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education) that normally requires at least four years but not more than five years of full-time equivalent college-level work.
Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
Buildings: capital assets built or acquired for occupancy and use by the entity. These are structures such as classrooms, research facilities, administrative offices, and storage.
Classification: Degree-seeking students are classified based on satisfactory performance on all required examinations and successful completion of credit hours as follows: freshman (less than 32 semester hours, sophomore (at least 32 but less than 63 semester hours), junior (at least 63 but less than 93 semester hours), Senior (at least 93 semester hours).
Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP): a standard numerical and terminological classification system for secondary and postsecondary instructional programs. CIP codes, a six-digit code (in the form xx.xxxx) are used by universities nationally to report various instructional program data to the U. S. Department of Education and other government and higher education organizations.
Clerical and secretarial: a primary function or occupational activity category used to classify persons whose assignments typically are associated with clerical activities or are specifically of a secretarial nature.
Cohort: a specific group of students established for tracking purposes.
Degree: An award conferred by a college, university, or other postsecondary education institution as official recognition for the successful completion of a program of studies.

Doctor's degree: highest award a student can earn for graduate study. The doctor's degree classification includes such degrees as Doctor of Education, Doctor of Juridical Science, Doctor of Public Health, and the Doctor of Philosophy degree in any field such as agronomy, food technology, education, engineering, public administration, ophthalmology, or radiology.
Enrollment: the number of persons who have accurately completed the registration process and who have paid the appropriate fees for coursework.
Executive, administrative, and managerial: persons whose assignments require management of the institution, or a customarily recognized department or subdivision thereof. Assignments require the performance of work directly related to management policies or general business operations of the institution, department or subdivision. Assignments in this category customarily and regularly require the incumbent to exercise discretion and independent judgment.
Faculty: persons whose initial assignments are made for the purpose of conducting instruction, research or public service as a principal activity (or activities). They may hold academic rank titles of professor, associate professor, assistant professor, instructor, lecturer or the equivalent of any of those academic ranks. Faculty may also include the chancellor/president, provost, vice provosts, deans, directors or the equivalent, as well as associate deans, assistant deans and executive officers of academic departments (chairpersons, heads or the equivalent) if their principal activity is instruction combined with research and/or public service. The designation as "faculty" is separate from the activities to which they may be currently assigned. For example, a newly appointed president of an institution may also be appointed as a faculty member. Graduate, instruction, and research assistants are not included in this category.
Federal government grants and contracts (revenues) - revenues from federal governmental agencies that are for training programs, research, or public service activities for which expenditures are reimbursable under the terms of a government grant or contract. Includes Pell Grants.
First-time freshman: A student attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level. Includes students enrolled in the fall term who attended college for the first time in the prior summer term.
Freshman: Classification level designation for first-year student in undergraduate programs.
Full-time equivalent (F.T.E.) student: The full-time equivalent (FTE) of students is a single value providing a meaningful combination of full time and part time students.
Full-time student: Undergraduate: a student enrolled for 12 or more semester credit hours; Graduate: a student enrolled for 9 or more semester credit hours
Graduate student: A student who holds a bachelor's or equivalent, and is taking courses at the post-baccalaureate level.
Graduation rate: represents the percent of first-time, full-time freshmen enrolled in the university in the fall terms of an academic year that subsequently earn a degree at the university within four, six, or eight years.
Grants and contracts (revenues): revenues from governmental agencies and nongovernmental parties that are for specific research projects, other types of programs, or for general institutional operations (if not government appropriations).
Hispanic: A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

Junior: Classification level designation for third-year student in undergraduate programs.
In-state student - a student who is a legal resident of the state in which he/she attends school.
In-state tuition: The tuition charged by institutions to those students who meet the state's or institution's residency requirements.
Level (of student): student's level of progress toward a degree. Freshmen and sophomore students are categorized as lower level; junior and senior students are categorized as upper level; graduate students are categorized as graduate level.
Master's degree: An award that requires the successful completion of a program of study of generally one or two full-time equivalent academic years of work beyond the bachelor's degree.
Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander- A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
New graduate: student who has not previously enrolled for work creditable toward an advanced degree at any university, and who is enrolled for work creditable toward such a degree.
Non-degree-seeking student: a student enrolled in courses for credit who is not recognized by the institution as seeking a degree or formal award.
Nonresident alien: A person who is not a citizen or national of the United States and who is in this country on a visa or temporary basis and does not have the right to remain indefinitely.
Non Instructional Employee: All University employees who are not classified as faculty.
University housing - any residence halls owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes.
Out-of-state student: a student who is not a legal resident of the state in which he/she attends school.
Out-of-state tuition: The tuition charged by institutions to those students who do not meet the institution's or state's residency requirements.
Part-time staff (employees): the type of appointment at the snapshot date determines whether an employee is full time or part time. The employee's term of contract is not considered in making the determination of full or part time.
Part-time student: Undergraduate: a student enrolled for either 11 semester credits or less; Graduate: a student enrolled for either 8 semester credits or less
Ethnicity: Category used to describe groups to which individuals belong, identify with, or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. A person may be counted in only one group.
Retention rate: a measure of the rate at which students persist in their educational program at an institution, expressed as a percentage. For four-year institutions, this is the percentage of first-time bachelors (or equivalent) degree-seeking undergraduates from the previous fall who are again enrolled in the current fall.
Revenues: the inflow of resources or other enhancement of net assets (or fund balances) of an institution or settlements of its liabilities (or a combination of both) from delivering or producing goods, rendering services, or other activities that constitute the institution's ongoing major or central operations. Includes revenues from fees and charges, appropriations, auxiliary enterprises, and contributions and other no exchange transactions.

SAT: previously known as the Scholastic Aptitude Test, this is an examination administered by the Educational Testing Service (ETS) which is used to predict the facility with which an individual will progress in learning college-level academic subjects.
Senior. Classification level designation for fourth-year or later student in undergraduate programs.
Service/maintenance: primary function or occupational activity category used to classify persons whose assignments require limited degrees of previously acquired skills and knowledge and in which workers perform duties that result in or contribute to the comfort, convenience, and hygiene of personnel and the student body or that contribute to the upkeep of the institutional property.
Skilled crafts: primary function or occupational activity category used to classify persons whose assignments typically require special manual skills and a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the processes involved in the work, acquired through on-the-job training and experience or through apprenticeship or other formal training programs.
Sophomore. Classification level designation for second-year student in undergraduate programs.
State of origin: is the state of residence at the time of application to the University.
Technical and paraprofessional - primary function or occupational activity category used to classify persons whose assignments require specialized knowledge or skills which may be acquired through experience, apprenticeship, on-the-job-training, or academic work in occupationally specific programs that result in a 2-year degree or other certificate or diploma. Includes persons who perform some of the duties of a professional in a supportive role, which usually requires less formal training and/or experience than normally required for professional status.
Tenure: status of a personnel position with respect to permanence of the position.
Tenure track: personnel positions that lead to consideration for tenure.
Transfer applicant: An individual who has fulfilled the institution's requirements to be considered for admission (including payment or waiving of the application fee, if any) and who has previously attended another college or university and earned college-level credit.
Transfer student: A student entering the institution for the first time but known to have previously attended a postsecondary institution at the same level (e.g., undergraduate).
Tuition: Amount of money charged to students for instructional services. Tuition may be charged per term, per course, or per credit.
Tuition and fees (revenues) - revenues from all tuition and fees assessed against students (net of refunds and discounts and allowances) for educational purposes.
Undergraduate: A student enrolled in a four- or five-year bachelor's degree program, an associate degree program, or a vocational or technical program below the baccalaureate.
Unduplicated head count - the sum of students enrolled for credit with each student counted only once during the reporting period, regardless of when the student enrolled.
White, non-Hispanic: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East (except those of Hispanic origin).
