

Duty to Report

There are certain situations under the mental health professionals. They are requested by law and ethical code to reveal information obtained during meetings/ sessions with Disability Services to other persons or agencies without the client's permission. These are as follows:

1. If the student threatens bodily harm or death to another person.
2. If the student threatens bodily harm or death to themselves.
3. If the student reveals information about known or suspected physical/ sexual abuse or neglect of a minor child, a developmentally disabled adult, or an elderly adult dependent on special care.
4. A direct Court Order.

If you have any questions regarding Duty to Report, please discuss further with Disability Services.
