

ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY APPROVED PROGRAMS (4/1/2023)

Explanatory Note: Class B programs require a bachelor's degree; Class A programs require a master's degree (either to earn initial certification in a teaching field via completion of an alternative program or to earn advanced certification in a teaching field or area of instructional support via completion of a traditional program); and Class AA programs require an education specialist degree.

Biology (6-12)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
Business/Marketing Education (6-12)	B
Chemistry (6-12)	B
Collaborative Special Education (K-6)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
Collaborative Special Education (6-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
Early Childhood Education (P-3)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
Elementary Education (K-6)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
English Language Arts (6-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
General Science (6-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
General Social Studies (6-12)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
Health Education (6-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
History (6-12)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
Instructional Leadership (P-12)	A and AA
Library Media (P-12)	A and AA
Mathematics (6-12)	B, A (Alternative and Traditional), AA
Music, Choral (P-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
Music, Instrumental (P-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
Physical Education (P-12)	B and A (Alternative and Traditional)
Reading Specialist (P-12)	A
School Counseling (P-12)	A and AA